Recreational Program Instructor

University of California, Los Angeles
October, 1979

Class Specification - A.10
Recreational Program Instructor - 4011

CLASS CONCEPT

Under direction, Recreational Program Instructors plan, organize, and conduct a variety of non-credit recreational activity classes and/or workshops for students, faculty and staff and perform other related duties as required.

Incumbents prepare course outlines and lesson plans for assigned sessions outlining progression of lectures, demonstrations, and the extent of enrollee participation in various recreational activities. Classes include but are not limited to such activities as arts, crafts, sports, and specialized skills such as cooking, bridge, and photography.

The class is distinguished from classes in the Recreation Supervisor series on the basis of responsibility for planning and conducting a specific activity class or workshop on a short-term intermittent basis.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Possession of the professional level of expertise in the activity to be conducted and demonstrated teaching ability; or an equivalent combination of education and experience; and skills, knowledges, and abilities essential to the successful performance of the duties assigned to the position.
