Staff Advisors to Regents' Committees

At its January 19, 2005 meeting, the UC Board of Regents adopted a new two-year pilot program, beginning in July 2005, designed to improve direct communication between UC employees and the Board and to help facilitate staff input into the Board’s deliberations and decisions.

Under the pilot program, two individual staff and/or non-Senate academic employees will serve as non-voting advisors to two Regental committees: the Committee on Educational Policy and the Committee on Grounds and Buildings. Each Staff Advisor will participate in all meetings of his/her assigned committee (with the exception of Closed or Regents Only sessions) and will be invited to stay and observe all open sessions of The Regents' meetings and certain other Regents' events.

The current advisors are serving a one-year term, beginning July 1, 2005.

In order to provide continuity of experience, Dave Miller, one of the current Staff Advisors has been selected to continue to serve for the second year, 2006-2007. One new Staff Advisor will be selected for the second year of the pilot program. Selection of the 2006-2007 Staff Advisor will be made from all eligible UC staff and non-Senate academic employees who apply.

Should The Regents decide to continue the Staff Advisor Pilot Program beyond its initial two year period, the incoming Staff Advisor would serve one additional year, 2007-2008, and one new Staff Advisor would then be selected each year to serve a two year term.

The two-year pilot program was approved with strong support from UC President Robert Dynes. The key contact for the Staff Advisors at the Office of the President is Judy Boyette, Associate Vice President for Human Resources and Benefits. Questions about the program should be directed to Bill Neff in Associate Vice President Boyette's office at (510) 987-9996.

SELECTION PROCESS

The UC Staff Advisor pilot program, a two-year program approved by the Board of Regents and instituted in 2005-2006, is intended to allow the Regents to benefit from hearing staff and non-Senate academic employee perspectives on relevant... matters that come before Regents’ committees and the Board. For the first year of the program, two Staff Advisors were selected to advise two Regental committees. One of the two incumbent Staff Advisors, Dave Miller, has been asked to continue to serve for the second year of the pilot program.

The following process is designed to select the incoming Staff Advisor, who would serve a two-year term beginning July 1, 2006, if the pilot program is extended beyond June 30, 2007. Should The Regents decide not to continue the program after the initial two years, the incoming Staff Advisor would serve a one-year term beginning July 1, 2006.

1. Call for nominations

For the second year of the pilot program, candidates will self-nominate in response to broad system notice. This will generally occur electronically and through other regular employee communication processes. 2. Eligibility

At the time of application, each candidate must be a career employee of the University of California, with a minimum of five years of career service and be employed in good standing with sustained performance of “exceeds expectations” or higher. In order to prevent a conflict of interest or the appearance thereof, employees holding an office or position of leadership or advocacy in an employee organization or association (e.g., union, staff advisory group, employee association/organization) must resign from any such office or position before accepting and while serving in the position of Staff Advisor. A Staff Advisor will not be eligible for an appointment to more than one two year term.

e. Demonstrate political acumen in appropriate circumstances
f. Commit to attend and participate fully at all assigned committee meetings, and plan to attend all Regents meetings
4. Compensation for Staff Advisors

While performing services as a Staff Advisor, Advisors will not suffer a loss of regular University pay, nor will service in this volunteer capacity result in any additional pay, including overtime.

5. Application Process

Candidates will self-nominate in a timely manner in response to the system notice. Fully completed applications must be submitted to William J. Neff in Associate Vice President Boyette’s office, UC Office of the President, either by email to staffadvisorapplication-l@ucop.edu or by U.S. mail to:
